- Although a reasonable effort will be made to protect your 4-H exhibit from damage, injury, losses, theft, or death, neither the Crawford County Fair Boards (Junior or Senior), the Junior Fair Livestock Committees nor the Crawford County Extension Office are responsible for the safety of any Junior Fair Exhibit placed on display at the Crawford County Fair.

- All exhibits, including livestock, are placed on display at the risk of the member. In addition, members and their parents are responsible for any damage or injury which their livestock may cause, to other individuals or property, also for the death of an animal at the fair. This applies to Market and Breeding livestock. Absolutely NO REIMBURSEMENT will be granted to the exhibitor for the damage, injury, losses, theft, or death of project entries. Please check your homeowner's liability policy to see if it covers your animals on display at the fairgrounds.

We accept the rules of the Junior Fair, and agree to be bound by any decision of the Senior/Junior Fair Boards and/or the Junior Fair Livestock Committees in case of any dispute arising from the interpretation or application thereof.
